Farms

Riverfront

13 prime acres with frontage on the historic Green River. 10 acres of the property can be planted in crops or hay. Property would make for a great home site or cabin site for year around living or getaway for hunting perfect for those family get together. Property offers good hunting with nice bucks and turkey harvested every year. It is not every day that this type of property comes on the market. The Green River offers great fishing, boating and Kayaking opportunities. Water frontage of a river like this is hard to find in this acre range. Call today to schedule your showing. Property shown by appointment only.
